Danes drop another game to Dutchmen, 54-50

Albany closed out SUNYAC-East with a 62-53 victory over Oneonta

By Marc Schwarz

The University of the Albany basketball team suffered a 62-53 defeat to SUNY Oneonta Wednesday night. The Dutchmen, led by 18 points early, held off the Danes to capture their third straight victory.

The Dutchmen were led by a career-high 19 points from guard Kevin Bartlett, who shot 6 of 9 from the field. Forward Russ Davis added 13 points and 13 rebounds, while guard Mike Adam scored 12 points.

The Danes were led by forward Nancy Wunderlich, who scored 16 points and grabbed 15 rebounds. Forward Diane Fernandes added 15 points and 10 rebounds, while guard Sue Adams scored 10 points.

The Dutchmen started the game on a 13-2 run and never looked back. Albany was able to cut the lead to 39-35 in the second half, but the Dutchmen pulled away with a 12-2 run.

The Danes ended the night with a 14-12 record, while the Dutchmen improved to 20-3. Albany will look to rebound on Sunday against the University of the South.

Cagers drop third straight with Hartwick loss

By Mark Levine

The Colgate men's basketball team was defeated by Hartwick College, 70-52, on Saturday night in Hamilton. The loss extended the Gavins' losing streak to three games.

Hartwick, led by forward John Adams, scored 21 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. Guard John Smith added 18 points and 7 assists, while guard Mike Johnson scored 11 points.

The Gavins were led by forward Mike Brosnan, who scored 17 points and grabbed 8 rebounds. Guard Dan Miller added 16 points and 5 assists.

The Gavins started off strong, taking a 10-0 lead in the first 4 minutes of the game. However, Hartwick went on a 21-5 run over the next 7 minutes to take a 26-15 lead into halftime.

In the second half, Hartwick continued to pull away, outscoring Colgate 44-37. The Gavins were unable to keep up with Hartwick's physical play and scoring ability.

The Gavins ended the night with a 13-12 record, while Hartwick improved to 16-5. Colgate will look to rebound on Sunday against the University of the South.

Zwana denied tenure in contested decision

By Steve Fox

The SUNY at Albany's Board of Trustees voted against granting tenured status to Professor Japhet M. Zwana, the university's provost and vice president for academic affairs.

Zwana had been recommended for tenure by the provost's cabinet and the faculty senate, but the Board of Trustees voted 13-0 against granting him tenure.

Zwana was appointed as provost and vice president for academic affairs in 1990, after serving as acting dean of the college of arts and sciences.

The Board of Trustees cited Zwana's lack of academic credentials and his failure to develop a strong academic program as reasons for denying him tenure.

Zwana has been a vocal critic of the university's administration, particularly in regards to the budget and the proposed tuition increase.

The decision has been met with outrage from the faculty and students, who have called for Zwana's resignation and the Board of Trustees to reconsider their decision.

A brief summary of the show

Chinese fanfare welcomes 'Year of the Boar'

By Allen Brown

A Chinese new year celebration was sponsored by the SUNYA's Chinese Student Association (CSA) on Wednesday, Feb. 22, in the Schuyler Ballroom. The celebration began at 5:30 p.m. with the traditional lion dance, followed by various Chinese cultural performances, including traditional Chinese music, martial arts, and dance.

The show began with a lion dance, traditionally performed at the beginning of each Chinese New Year. The lion dance is believed to date back over a thousand years and is performed to ward off evil spirits. The performers, dressed in vibrant costumes and carrying large wooden balls, move with grace and agility, creating a spectacle that captivates the audience.

The show continued with various traditional Chinese musical performances, including a Chinese opera, where actors are painted in rich colors and wear elaborate costumes. The music is accompanied by traditional Chinese instruments such as the erhu and the pipa, which add to the cultural authenticity of the performance.

Martial arts demonstrations were also featured, showcasing the strength, agility, and discipline of Chinese martial artists. The performers, dressed in traditional Chinese martial arts uniforms, displayed impressive skills in various forms of martial arts, including kung fu and tai chi.

The celebration concluded with a Chinese dinner in the Schuyler Ballroom. The dinner featured a variety of Chinese dishes, including a Chinese tea ceremony, which symbolizes hospitality and friendship.

The Chinese New Year celebration at SUNYA's Chinese Student Association was attended by over 200 students and faculty members, who enjoyed the cultural performances and the traditional Chinese dinner.

The Chinese New Year Celebration is the annual event organized by SUNYA's Chinese Student Association. The event is aimed at introducing the Chinese culture to SUNYA's students and faculty members. The event includes various cultural performances, such as traditional Chinese music and dance, and a Chinese dinner.

The celebration was well-received by the attendees, who enjoyed the cultural performances and the traditional Chinese dinner. The event provided an opportunity for SUNYA's students and faculty members to learn about Chinese culture and to celebrate the Chinese New Year together.

The Chinese New Year Celebration at SUNYA's Chinese Student Association is a popular event that attracts a large number of attendees. The event is organized to promote cultural awareness and to provide a platform for SUNYA's students and faculty members to learn about Chinese culture.

The celebration is an important event for SUNYA's Chinese Student Association, as it provides a platform for SUNYA's students and faculty members to learn about Chinese culture and to celebrate the Chinese New Year together. The event is also an opportunity to promote cultural awareness and to strengthen the relationship between SUNYA's students and faculty members.

The role of Black history

A vital tool in the fight against African-American racism is the study of Black history. It provides a foundation for understanding the struggles and achievements of African Americans. Through the study of Black history, individuals can gain a deeper appreciation for the rich cultural heritage of African Americans and the contributions they have made to society. By examining the experiences of African Americans throughout history, one can better understand the complexity of race relations and the ongoing struggle for equality.

Progress has been slow but present. We're out of the rut and pointed in the right direction. Personally I don't know if my fingers are numb, my sneakers are soaked, and I'm armed with mud. I look like an all-weather camping version. Thank God we brought a girl along, if we weren't here who would steer? I'm finding this hard to believe. I mean I gave up a trip to Phoenix for this.

Although A Christmas Carol is no longer regularly performed, it is still a classic and beloved tale. The story begins with the character of Ebenezer Scrooge, a bitter and stingy man who hates Christmas. However, on Christmas Eve, he is visited by three ghosts that show him his past, present, and future. Scrooge learns the true meaning of Christmas and becomes a kinder person.

To the Editor:

I've been on campus this semester and have heard many comments about the YAA games. I've been told that the games are unorganized and that the YAA games are just a waste of time. I've read that the YAA games are just for fun and that the YAA games are for the students who are not interested in serious games.

I believe that the YAA games are organized and that the YAA games are for the students who are interested in serious games. I believe that the YAA games are not just for fun and that the YAA games are for the students who are serious about their games.

I believe that the YAA games are not a waste of time and that the YAA games are important to the students. I believe that the YAA games are important to the students because they are a way for the students to express themselves and to have fun. I believe that the YAA games are important to the students because they are a way for the students to compete and to improve their skills.

SUNY unites to protest budget cuts

Albany hosts annual SASU conference

By Bob Goudreault

In what was the single largest rally ever in the history of the League, according to SASU President Tom Dewey, more than 350 students from more than 20 colleges and universities attended the SUNY Student Action and Union (SASU) rally, at the Empire State Plaza in Albany on Monday to protest the budget cuts that threatened the future of SUNY.

The day culminated in a rally held in the Convention Hall of the Empire State Plaza at 2 p.m. Energetic students carried a large banner that read "SUNY Students United Against the Budget Cuts." The banner was held by a group of SUNY students from across the state, including students from SUNY at Albany, SUNY at Buffalo, SUNY at Stony Brook, and SUNY at Binghamton.

The rally was attended by more than 1,000 students, who chanted "No more cuts!" and "Save our future!" as they marched through the halls of the Empire State Plaza.

SUNY students from across the state, including students from SUNY at Albany, SUNY at Buffalo, SUNY at Stony Brook, and SUNY at Binghamton, attended the rally.

The proposed budget gap of $1.8 billion for the coming fiscal year, according to the Governor's office, "will cut across the. SUNY system's ability to provide a quality education, and the University will be forced to make devastating cuts to programs and services." The Governor has proposed to cut tuition by 10 percent and to eliminate 1,200 full-time faculty positions.

"We must still lobby for tax increases and the surcharge," said Gordon Diffenderfer, a Brockport student, who was at the rally. "We cannot allow this to happen without a fight."
